What's New At AIU?

VOLUME 1, ISSUE IV

PARIS, MADRID, FLORENCE: LIMITED SPOTS!

We have limited space available in our Madrid: The European Business Environment, Paris: Its History & Museums, and Florence: Art in Florence & Tuscany programs. Fashion in Paris is now full.

If you have students that are interested in studying at the above destinations, please encourage them to contact an Admissions Representative soon to inquire about program availability. More Details

INTERNATIONAL TEXTILES AND APPAREL ASSOCIATION (ITAA)

For Students: The International Textile & Apparel Association and American InterContinental University in London announce a scholarship to study fashion marketing and fashion design at AIU in London.

Winter 2006 Recipient: University of Missouri-Columbia

Fall 2005 Recipient: Virginia Tech

For Faculty: The purpose of the American InterContinental University Award is to enhance faculty expertise regarding textile and apparel design and marketing in the global marketplace. The emphasis for the award is on fostering faculty development which will promote an international perspective in the undergraduate curriculum. The award will consist of an opportunity to visit AIU's London campus as part of a scheduled group experience. More details...

Our 2005 faculty winner is the Professor and Department Head from the Design & Merchandising Department at Colorado State University.

AIU STUDENT AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

This program is a great way for our past students to relive their study abroad experiences by sharing them with students at their home universities. Students are awarded monetary compensation for each level completed. If you would like to refer an AIU Study Abroad Program Alumnus that you think would enjoy this position, please contact Megan Gustafson. Learn more...

We currently have Ambassadors at the following campuses:
