New Director of Admissions

Robert Dutton has recently moved from Southern California to join the American InterContinental University Study Abroad team as Director of Admissions. Rob served in the United States Army for 22 years and has traveled all over the world. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from AIU Online with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration (Management concentration). In addition, Rob has earned a Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degree from Suffield University.

Rob is originally from Baltimore, Maryland and is married with four children and six granddaughters. He is a member of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Incorporated, 100 Black Men of Southern California and a member of the Prince Hall Masons. He is a consummate leader and motivator always willing to accept a new challenge. Robert can be reached at 847-585-7324 or rdutton@sap.aiuniv.edu

London Internships

AIU London presents students with the opportunity to gain valuable international work experience within an academically supervised format. The London Internship Program is designed to help students develop both personal and professional skills as they pursue their goals.

The University has extensive contacts throughout the London business community and is dedicated to helping students find an internship in their specified field of interest in areas such as business, media, marketing, fashion, and design. Best of all, they'll be pursuing their career goals while immersed in the vast cultural and social opportunities offered by one of the world's great cities!
